It was ever important for grandma to be involved in all of her grandchildren's lives and pursuits. From sitting through 500 barrel racers waiting to see my 14 second long run, to dodging golf balls thrown by Bryce, spending time with Treavor and his speedy go cart, and sitting through freezing cold Colorado weather watching Alec play football, my grandma could not be kept from enjoying all of our favorite activities.

Her faith in God was evident by her everyday actions. I remember from a very young age her reading all of us Bible stories, and telling us of a loving and powerful God. Her life was a demonstration of Gods love for each of us. She always put others and their problems before herself, and we were certainly no exception!

I speak for all of us when I say we will miss grandma. But we know that someday we will see her again!

Until the time Jesus calls us home, we will find comfort in knowing that she has reached her life's destination and fulfilled her purpose here on Earth. She is now walking hand in hand with Jesus, our merciful and loving savior on streets of gold in Heaven.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF KAY OLIPHANT
